Case in Which Whitecotton Was Charged With Plotting the Revolt Affirmed by Supreme Court Decisions.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 2.—Division No. 2 of the Missouri Supreme Court to-day affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court in the case against Howard Sharp of Missouri, and Sharp will have to come to the Penitentiary to serve ten years for murder.

This is the same where it was charged that he plotted the revolt of the rebels when it was appealed to the Supreme Court. The decision in the Sharp case does not affect the proceeding against Whitecotton, the court having held that Mr. Whitecotton was guilty of changing the records, as charged.

The matter is now up to the Attorney General to file disbarment proceedings against Mr. Whitecotton.

Following were the other proceedings in the court:

By Gant, P. J.:

Burke affirmed.

Harrison vs. McLaughlin affirmed.

Dobson et al. vs. LaLanne affirmed.

Stone vs. Smith affirmed. Fox, J., not sitting.

Scouller vs. Wabson reversed and remanded with directions.

Burgess, J.:

State vs. Sharp affirmed.

South vs. Southwest Missouri Light Company; transferred to the Louis County Court.

Lewan vs. Metropolitan Street Railroad Company affirmed.

Palmer &amp; Miller vs. Jones affirmed.

Wade vs. Kansas City reversed and remanded.

Burke, et al. vs. Holt affirmed.

McFox, J.:

Vincent vs. Jones reversed and remanded.

Hader reversed and remanded.

Dollar Savings Bank vs. Ridge; judgment affirmed.

Stone, receiver, vs. Holt Rotman, appellant affirmed.

State vs. Austin; reversed and remanded.

Adjudicated to July 16, 1904.

Under and Over the Sea.

Take submarine boat for Paris.

River Excursion for Employees.

The employees of the Globe Shoe and Clothing Company, Nos. 701-713 Franklin Avenue will have a river excursion on the boat "Pineapple" of Providence. Wednesday evening, as guests of the firm. The boat will leave the foot of Olive street at 7:30 o'clock.
